

VIDEO CONTEST

Submission guidelines...

Thank you for your interest in submitting your video to the Sabeel Media “at the INTERSECTION of faith and culture: video contest! We are now accepting submissions for consideration. Before you submit your video, please take a few moments to read these guidelines.

CONTENT- Each documentary style VIDEO submission must feature an intriguing/interesting person who shares their story then introduces us to another person in their life that they have a relationship with that is DIFFERENT from themselves. (Maybe, but not limited to... culture, language, spirituality, politics, ideology, gender etc.) Then these two persons share in their own words the story of how they were challenged, transformed, helped, grown or impacted by this “neighbor” of another flavor!

AGE- Entrants must be over 18

LENGTH- Each video must not exceed 10 minutes in length.

FEES- There is NO ENTRY fee for this contest

LANGUAGE- May be in any language, if not in English, please include English subtitles. We are keenly interested in accessibility and reproducibility so no big budget productions please!

BUDGET- Each story must be produced on a LOW budget of $1,000 USD or less.

DISTRIBUTION- This video contest is for web distribution only.

You may submit videos that have been submitted to other festivals and contests, as long as you are able to sign the release form.

If your video has been rejected by the INTERSECTION previously, you can re-edit and resubmit it if you wish.

NOTE: Sabeel Media is a non-profit organization and will not profit in any way from your video clip.
